Workshop Attending:

Collagraph	Sun 30 th July, 2017	$80.00
Erin Ricardo Erin Ricardo is a professional artist and Visual Art teacher. She uses woodcut printing techniques to make images of characters and structures set in the landscape. Workshop outline This workshop will provide an introduction to the techniques used in collagraph printing. Collagraphs are a type of relief print. The process involves collaging materials onto a block and inking the surface of the design to make a print. The shapes, textures, layers and spacing of the materials used in the collage determine the qualities of the printed image. Workshop participants will complete their own plate design and a set of prints. What to bring Please bring an image to work from or come with some ideas ready to use for your plate design. A smock to wear while printing is optional. Afternoon tea and materials and equipment will be provided.
