Jeanine Kolasa – Creative Meditation

Jeanine Kolasa is a practicing artist and is currently completing a Masters in Art Therapy. Kolasa's work explores explosive colour fields that may resemble the Indian Festival of Colours, or an odd colour scheme asking the viewer to question the possibility of an ambiguous presence within the image. Her work is inspired by the changing colours of the seasons, and observations of nature and the way in which TV production may reveal the familiarities of such using techno colour.

Kolasa is an arts educator having worked in the disability sector and is skilled in delivering Art Therapy class in both one on one and group situations. Kolasas facilitates our Creative Meditation classes held on Tuesday afternoons during the Term. Clients can also arrange individual classes held on Friday between 10 and 4 pm – $80 for a two- hour session – Bookings essential by phoning 0439 571 054.

Yoko Maejima – Inclusive and Primary Art Class

Yoko Maejima is a freelance illustrator, graphic designer and artist. She has a diploma of Visual arts from NMIT, Melbourne and is the recipient of several art awards including the NMIT Illustre 2014 Most Outstanding Individual work sponsored by Eckersley's.
